

What's included?

All-inclusive Pricing

The prices that you see listed include all major expenses, including 3 meals, accommodations, park fees. Tips and your own personal expenses.

All Accommodations

Depending on your choice, based on double occupancy.

All Meals

All meals in Tanzania are either prepared for you by our expert cooks, or served at your lodge.

A local Safari Guide

A guide who will be your companion, your teacher, and at your service throughout your trip.

Well customized safari truck

Comfortable game viewing in specially outfitted 4-wheel drive Land Rover Defenders, the ultimate safari vehicles, with roof hatches and video camera charging sockets. You are guaranteed a window seat.

Park Fees

All park fees and Creter service.

Complementary Bottle of Water

Baggage Handling

Complete Pre-departure Materials

After making your reservation, you will receive a package of detailed information to help you prepare for your trip. It includes terms and conditions, pre-departure instructions, a packing list, health requirements, visa regulations and all your flight details.

Pre-departure Specialist

When you book your trip, you will be matched with a pre-departure specialist, who will prove to be an invaluable resource. He or she will send you periodic reminders and helpful information to make sure you are well prepared. Additionally, you will have phone and email access to your trip specialist until departure.

On-site Welcome Orientation

This valuable briefing will help familiarize you with what's ahead, as well as give you practical information about the day-to-day details of your trip.

Daily Briefing

A daily safari briefing will help prepare you for the next day of game viewing.

Special Excursions and Events

As described in your itinerary.